

Hello, world,
with your
shades of green
and blue, You're here to stay, the morning dew

The vast expanse, the
creatures, trees,
Each tiny grain
of sand at the
sea's breeze

A symphony of life, a dance so
free, Hello,
world, in you we
breathe
